BERT LYTELL in Alias Jimmy Valentine

No need to explain who Jimmy Valentine is. He's more notorious than leap year—is fully as dangerous. He's craftier than a twice-widow stalking her third victim, and stouter of heart than the man who marries her. The most magnetic star of the screen in a play more famous than the eighteenth amendment and many times as popular.

You will regret letting him make a get-away without seeing him.

Memorial Service at North Ogden Monday

Memorial services will be held Monday forenoon in the North Ogden cemetery. Residents of Pleasant View will participate.

The North Ogden contingent will form in line at 10 a. m. on the public square. They will be joined at Washington avenue and cemetery street by the Pleasant View crowd, marching then to the cemetery.

Veterans of the G. A. R. will conduct the service for heroes of three wars, whose bodies lie in the North Ogden cemetery. They are Calvin Chandler and Robert Scott of the Civil war; Edward Wade and Jonathan Campbell of the war with Mexico; and James Shaw of the World war.

COUNTY SCHOOL EXERCISES HELD

Diplomas Presented to More Than 400 Graduates at Ogden Tabernacle

With more than 400 graduates participating, the thirtieth annual eighth grade commencement exercises of the Weber county public schools opened this morning in the tabernacle at 11 o'clock.

The address to graduates was given by Professor Richard R. Lyman, of the University of Utah, while presentation of certificates was made by Superintendent B. A. Fowler of the Weber county schools.

LAST CHANCE TO SEE 'A ROMANCE OF OGDEN'

This is the last day that the Standard-Examiner movie, "A Romance of Ogden," will be shown at the Alhambra theatre. Hundreds of people have seen the all-time photograph and commented on the excellence of the entire production. Seldom, if ever, have the people of Ogden exhibited such keen interest as they have in this local moving picture acted entirely by people of our city. As previously stated, the cast includes Mr. John C. Brown, Miss Inez Ingelbrechtsen, Mr. C. H. Carman, Mr. C. H. Foster, James Hearno, Max dale Gil, Wm. Gilley, Elmer Turnblom, Little Frances Foster, Frank Welt, Pauline Siprelle, Little Jackson Cunningham, Theodore Jakeman and hundreds of others.

If you want a big old-time laugh, don't fail to see the famous love scene, "The Death of the Villains," and the other unique spots in this, our very own movie.
